

Psychiatry

Anthony M. Antonacci DC, BCNP, CSCS

Let us call Psychiatry what it is.....pure quackery. Their entire work is based in nothing. No objective empirical evidence for any type of treatment all the while prescribing very dangerous drugs with enormous side effects to include suicide and murder.

As of June 2018 the Japanese government has defrocked the licenses of over 100 MD psychiatrists for over medicating patients for their own monetary gain. Unlike the USA that promotes the drugging of your children. Statistically, 1 in 5 children; under the age of 5 is on at least one type of psychiatric drug in the USA. And you wonder why our youth are going into church's and schools and movie theaters and shooting them up?

Stay away from these so-called doctor quacks as they have absolutely nothing to offer you except poison. They will ruin your life and that of your children. They are not mental health professionals. They are emotional wrecks and drug addicts, themselves and that is what they have turned our society into, mental wrecks and drug addicts.

Now, we have MD Psychiatrists that are calling for a complete psychiatric evaluation of President Donald Trump because they feel he is a menace to society. They even wrote a book called "The Dangerous Case of Donald Trump" in which they diagnose him based on nothing other than their skewed observations. By the way, it is illegal to diagnose any one without a face-to-face thorough examination and an Informed Consent for Treatment. Even the American Psychiatric Association has come forward to condemn the actions of these authors who are all university professors.

I listened, in shock, to a one-hour interview on NPR of 2 of the authors as they violated Mr. Trump's rights. Hopefully, he will retaliate with the appropriate lawsuits against the authors, the university's and the publisher.

In fact, what these bought and paid for courtesans have done is violate federal HIPPA regulations relative to privacy of health information and diagnose President Trump without his consent and then distribute his private health information and violate his rights. It should be noted that most rubbish like this coming out of universities are bought and paid for and many professors will sell their word processor to the highest bidder. No where is this corrupt prostitution more evident than in the job of a psychiatrist whose work is completely and absolutely unfounded in any evidence based science. They are quacks and pill pushers. In the hierarchy that exists in the Allopathic world, they are considered bottom dwellers and not respected by the rest of the profession.

Don't be fooled by this trash written by university psychiatry professorial courtesans. It was bought and paid for by the powers to be that have disdain for this President.

Having said that, if these professors and psychiatrists were so concerned about the mental well being of the POTUS, then why did they not call for the mental evaluation of the last three presidents we have had?

An inarticulate buffoon president that took us into the longest war(s) this country has ever had with no basis and with the assistance of the banks destroyed the middle class while stealing your wealth and your homes.

A president that accepted a noble peace prize while escalating drone attacks and war killing millions of innocent children all the while destroying health care in this country as he handed whatever was left of it to the drug companies and insurance companies to your demise and his monetary gain. Not to mention the racism and division his wife fueled in this country.

After her husband was SELECTED potus, Michelle Obama clearly stated,

“For the first time in my life, I am proud to be an American”.

Really, Michelle?

I have been proud to be an American my whole life., which is what my LEGAL immigrant parents taught me. And guess what, so were my parents who immigrated here from Italy and would only speak English in the home as they struggled with it because they wanted to assimilate and be Americans unlike many of our current undocumented immigrants that refuse to speak English and turn our neighborhoods into slums. Don't think so? Take a Sunday jaunt out of your cozy white neighborhoods and take a good look around you, here in Los Angeles. You won't have to go very far.

My father joined the US Army immediately after he immigrated here, legally, and was shipped back to Europe in combat to fight for your safety, Michelle, well before you were a drip down your ole mans leg on the pull out. My father is a Bronze Star recipient for heroism, validated by his headstone and the Army's presence at his funeral with a 21 gun salute and presenting the folded American flag to his wife. Did Barrack ever serve, Michelle? As General McCrystal said to your husband the day he was fired, “there will be a line to piss on your grave when you die, Mr. President.”

How dare you, Michelle, dishonor my father's service, dedication and commitment to this country as he almost died in combat and suffered and fought for your freedom? How dare you?

Oh, and here is the funny one. The DACA program? I teach DACA students. It was illegal and temporary so your Uncle Tom could get votes for his party. Trump is attempting to clean it up and give a clear path to citizenship. Do you forget that REAGAN gave 12 million illegal immigrants amnesty? Did Billy and your Uncle Tom do that? Not at all. Billy Clinton destroyed the Mexican economy with NAFTA and increased the power of the drug cartels and CIA to bring drugs into this country, which he admitted was a mistake and ole Barrack threw the Black community under the bus and sold them out. No crime in Chicago? Hey, Michelle isn't that your home state of Illinois where black youth are being murdered by the 100's per month? Oh and did we mention that more Black and Latino young men have been incarcerated under your husbands watch as well as under Billy Clinton's? Gosh, how does one enter the Presidency of the USA a pauper and come out worth over 40 million dollars, Michelle? Because of your husband, the USA leads the world in the incarceration of Black and Latino men and women. How proud you must be.

If you think for one moment that Obama was your bastion of hope, you are the village idiot.

And for those of you that think Hillary would have saved this country, God bless you for your ignorance and stay mired in your bliss of stupidity. And as far as Michelle? No one cared about you, sweetie and still don't. You were not a class act. You are a racist and an embarrassment. This is not about a Black White discussion for you bigots out there, white black or Latino and Asian. This is about America and the brave men and women like my father who fought and shot while you slept. Even with our corrupt government and sellout socialists and communists like Barbara Pelosi and Chuck Schummer, we keep the globe functioning. And if you think we are corrupt, which we are from the bottom up, top down, take a trip around the world and see what is out there. You have no idea what corrupt means. Unlike Chicago, Michelle Obama's city, that she cared so much about as murder skyrocketed during her husband's tenure, you can safely walk the streets of most our city's, unharmed. But then again, I feel safer in Mexico City than I do in downtown Los Angeles or Washington DC or St Louis or Detroit or certainly CHICAGO!

One Nation under God, as you say? God just saved you from the destruction and dismantling of our great country we have experienced for the last 24 years under sellout leaders. Hillary would have sold the rest of this country off to the highest bidders and you would be paying for it. Gee, what happened to the Clinton Foundation? Dismantled after her embarrassing loss because the rest of the world knew they could no longer play the "pay to play game" with Trump that they played with the Clintons, any longer. The money dried up and so did the Clintons.

And Billy, along with his wife, that sold this country piece by piece while funding their foundation in a pay for play scheme. All the while getting his dipstick wet with multiple extramarital affairs to include disrespecting the sanctity of the oval office via his carnal escapades. And these courtesan psychiatrist authors have no agenda? Oh, please, these 3 sellout Potus's were not menaces' to society and the globe? Where were these psychopath psychiatrists then, to speak out?

In 2010 the President of the German Association for Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Dr. Frank Schneider, admitted and apologized for German psychiatry's leading role in the Holocaust. He said, "Under National Nazism, MD psychiatrists showed contempt for their fellow man. They lied to and deceived the patients in their care and their families. They forced them to be sterilized, arranged their deaths and even performed killings." Psychiatrists. "First Do No Harm"? Hilarious when it comes to these quack, hack quacks.

This Eugenics movement was developed by American psychiatrists long before the Third Reich and Hitler. It was started in the US when Hitler was an Austrian in his teens. Hitler found justification for his racism and the pseudo-science of eugenics and psychiatry in America. That is the Allopathic MD Psychiatrist that you run to for your brain numbing poison. Well done.

And guess who spear heads the current Eugenicist agenda on this planet? Bill and Melinda Gates. Ya, the guy you bow to because he is worth billions and you are impressed with that. He did not get there because he is a nice guy that cares about you or anyone. Ah, c'mon, the same guy that supports sterilization of young black women in Africa as well as boys to control the population, thru the use of vaccines? Oh golly gosh I was a thinkin he was a real humanitarian. Ya, so do most ignorant buck toothed Americans, Jethro, that read at the 3rd grade level. Oh, and you can thank GW Bush and Barrack Obama for the decline in education in this country with their No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top that has destroyed any semblance of critical thinking in our schools. And that is why you believe the trash on your television and internet you make more love to than your spouse.

Eugenics? I know it is a big word. Take a deep breath and go to that big book called a Dictionary that explains to you what big words mean. Learn something instead of texting, reading and watching rubbish that tweaks what little thought process you have left.

You can thank American Psychiatrists for Hitler's genocide

BTW, most so called professionals in the mental health field go into that field because they are more dysfunctional than anyone on the planet and have no vision of what to do with their lives. Stay away from these quacks that see the world thru a very tainted and myopic view. Because they were physically, emotionally and sexually abused, they feel everyone was and as a result are very dangerous people and should be defrocked of any power they have to include psychologists, MFCC's, LCSW's and the like.

If you truly would like to learn what Psychiatry and the mental health hacks have done to us over decades, you only need to look at CCHR.org. This is the Citizens Commission on Human Rights and their center is located in Los Angeles. It is a museum on the atrocities that have been committed by the aforementioned for decades and that continue to this day. You will be appalled by what you see and learn about Psychiatry. The center is open daily and is free. It is an educational center that has enlightening educational literature for a donation. It is definitely worth the time invested to learn, in detail, about one of the most egregious, harmful and fraudulent professions known to our society. Psychiatrists are quacks, especially the double certified one on KCET & PBS that pretends to know anything about nutrition or health. The quackery of Psychiatry will enslave you and destroy you.

Lastly, 90% of these school shooters were on some type of psychotropic drug prescribed by MD Psychiatrists or worse, a primary care doctor. Now what? Is it the weapons or the pill pushing MD's that should be banned? The NRA is not the problem. The MD and your irresponsibility in parenting is.

And you can thank your Prince of Hope, Obama for all of it while you berate Trump who is taking this country back from the criminals like Obama, Hillary Clinton, Bill Clinton and GW Bush, et al and Comey that were selling you out. Just take a look around you and see the construction that GW and Obama destroyed and the benefit Trump has had to this economy by bringing you back from the brink of destruction as well as the corruption of McCain who was a coward. Where is his Bronze Star that my father has on his gravesite? Where is McCains Bronze Star? Where? A Coward and Traitor to the United States of America, and certainly no Maverick. He used his position to enrich himself to the tunes of millions while using his power to further corrupt the infrastructure of this great country of ours.

Even Mexico has agreed to reverse NAFTA, thanks to President Trump, as they now understand it destroyed their economy unlike the beech for the US, Vincente Fox, wanted. He used his own country to enrich himself just like Obama, the Clintons and GW did. Wake the hell up. I work and travel extensively in Mexico as you fear it. It is one of the most diverse beautiful countries in the world and so are the people. Hey, guess what? It snows in Mexico. Ya, really Jethro.
